Fire Insurance That Does Not Insure.

WHAT people will not know about fire insurance policies by the time the present agitation ceases will be worth the knowing. The metropolitan newspapers are devoting a great deal of space these times to discussing fire insurance matters, and many things have developed that the philosophy of man never dreamed of outside of insurance circles. Few fire insurance policy holders ever took the time or trouble to read over the big and unwieldy policy turned over to them by the insurer as a guarantee of indemnity against loss by fire. Many of these policies do not insure at all. They are full of loop holes through which the companies can conveniently crawl, and thus evade payment. How many policy holders on the Pacific Coast ever knew that there was a wind as well as an earthquake clause in many of the insurance policies issued in California. But this is a fact. Take for instance a prominent insurance company of Milwaukee. This company stipulates in its policy among other things the following, which we quote verbatim from a policy issued last year to a property holder here:

"This company shall not be liable for loss caused directly or indirectly by invasion, insurrection, riot, civil war or commotion or military or usurped power, or by order of any civil authority, or by theft, or by neglect of the insured to use all reasonable means to save and preserve the property at and after a fire, or when the property is endangered by fire in neighboring premises; or (unless fire ensues, and in that event, for the damage by fire only) by explosion of any kind, or lightning. If a building or any part thereof fall, except as a result of fire, all insurance by this policy on such building or its contents shall immediately cease."

This company might just as reasonably added to the above clause in its policy "and all insurance shall immediately cease as soon as a house takes fire." For this is about the sum and substance of many of these so-called fire insurance policies which have been issued not only by this company but many others to a gullible public for all these many years.

Republican Politics.

THE political pot, which had all the simmer knocked out of it by the earthquake in April, has again commenced to bubble and candidates for the various State, district and county offices are commencing to bob up. There are half a score of ambitious statesmen who want to be our next Governor, the most prominent among them being the incumbent, Geo. C. Pardee. Duncan McKinlay aspires for another term in Congress and will undoubtedly receive the nomination of his party. Judge Parham of Santa Rosa is out for one of the three places on the Court of Appeals in this, the Third District, and J. G. Cromwell of Petaluma wants to be a State Senator. For county offices Coroner Blackburn will come before the Republican County Convention for re-nomination, and almost every Republican in the county is talking Jack Smith for Sheriff.

The executive committee of the Republican State Central committee, Gen. Geo. Stone, chairman, met in San Francisco Tuesday and issued a call for the general committee to assemble in the metropolis on Monday, June 25th, at 8 p. m. at Union League headquarters. It recognized the San Francisco county central committee, headed by W. H. Davis and turned down the Ruef committee of which Chas. Sonntag is chairman. The claims of the two committees had previously been referred to the State committee for adjudication. The last week in August is recommended as the date for holding the Republican State Convention.

THE extraordinary session of the Legislature convened at Sacramento on June 2d, adjourned Tuesday. Much good was accomplished during the session by the passage of laws having for their purpose the relief of San Francisco in particular and the whole State in general, as the financial and other conditions had been completely upset by the earthquake and the fire that followed on April 18th. The members of both houses from Siskiyou on the north to the southland on the other side of Tehachapi were generous to poor old stricken San Francisco, which has been given among other things a $500,000 State building.

THE most degraded of all creatures in this world is he who would seek to ruin the reputation of a woman by slanderous lies in order that the finger of scorn and suspicion be pointed at her to the end that she become an outcast from society. No punishment is too severe to be meted out to such a wretch. He who would assassinate the reputation of a good woman should be shunned by all decent citizens as a viper in their midst which should be scotched.

F. W. LOUGEE, who recently died at his home in Petaluma was a director of the California Home at Eldridge during the administration of Governor Gage, and was well known in this valley. Mr. Lougee at the time of his death was treasurer of the Fireman's Fund Insurance Company, which suffered tremendous losses in the San Francisco fire, and it is said he died of a broken heart. The deceased was one of California's most upright and honored business men.

THE salary of the Sonoma Postoffice has been raised from $1200 to $1300 per annum. This speaks well for Postmaster Cheney, who has brought the office up to a high state of efficiency. The raise of salary also proves that Sonoma is growing.

THE Democrats are booming, Hon. Theodore Bell for Congress and he will undoubtedly be Hon. Duncan E. McKinlay's opponent for Congressional honors in this district.

GOVERNOR PARDEE has appointed S. C. Irving of San Francisco a director of the Feeble Minded Home at Eldridge, vice William Thomas, resigned.

The will of the late Franklin Wells Lougee was filed for probate in the Superior Court on Monday. The property is valued at $100,000. The will provides that the widow take her community half and an additional bequest of $1,000. The deceased's son-in-law, J. W. Elder of Petaluma is left $1,000, and two $2,000 bequests are made to two other relatives. The residue goes to his daughter, Mrs. Elder. The deceased was treasurer of the Firemen's Fund Insurance Company. —Press Democrat.

Postmaster Tripp is in receipt of a letter from Congressman McKinlay to the effect that he is sending sketches of postoffice buildings to be hung in the local office for inspection by the people here. Mr. McKinlay states that these are known in the department as United States plans and one that is generally approved by Santa Rosans will probably be adopted. The plans will be along in a few days. The letter states that the building bill will be reported this week and that the writer will immediately urge the treasury department to action in the premises. —Republican.

WORK ON NEW CITY HALL RECOMMENCED.

Contractor MacQuiddy and City Trustees Come to an Understanding.

Work on the New City Hall has again commenced, contractor T. J. MacQuiddy having secured a force of men who were put to work on the building last Wednesday morning.

Ever since the memorable 18th day of April work on the new municipal building has been suspended, owing to the closing of the banks, and the legal holidays following California's great disaster.

Now that the banks have been opened and legal holidays declared off by the Governor, Mr. MacQuiddy, who was given a three-days' notice by the City Trustees last week to resume work on the building, was enabled to comply with the conditions imposed upon him by the Trustees, and will now hasten the work on the edifice to speedy completion.

The City Trustees in notifying the contractor to get busy on such short notice did so to appease the general public, which became vociferous in its demands for a speedy completion of the job, and not in any wise to press him to the wall.

THE PASSING OF A HEROIC YOUNG MAN.

Henry Serres the Indirect Victim of Injuries Received at Fire a Year Ago.

Henry J. Serres, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Serres of the Bellevue Hotel, El Verano, is dead. He passed away at a private sanitarium in this place Tuesday night last of paralysis of the heart, superinduced by injuries received last summer while heroically fighting a fire which broke out in the kitchen of the Bellevue Hotel. His efforts saved the hotel, but he inhaled the flames and was badly burned about the hands and arms. His injuries, though painful, were not thought to be serious at the time, but they resulted in complications that eventually cost the young man his life.

Young Serres was born in San Francisco twenty-seven years ago, and was a brother of Tony and John Serres, Jr.

The funeral took place from the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Serres in El Verano yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. There were funeral services in St. Francis Church and the remains were followed to Mountain Cemetery by a large concourse of relatives and friends. The remains were placed in the receiving vault and will find repose in their last resting place in the private burial plot of the Serres family in one of the cemeteries of San Francisco.

Good Showing by Little Folks.

Last Friday afternoon a most delightful hour and a half was spent by the visitors who attended the closing exercises of the first and second grade pupils in Miss Cook's department. The seats were filled by wideawake, alert little figures, whose songs, drills and recitations showed that the little folks had been under the training of a teacher fully alive to the spirit of childhood and the modern method of primary work. The good order, close attention and quick response of such a roomful of little ones was remarkable, and the town is to be congratulated in being able to give our future citizens such a good foundation to build upon.

An Enjoyable Social.

The social given by the ladies of the Congregational and M. E. Churches of Sonoma at the latter church on Tuesday evening last brought out a large crowd of people, the ladies particularly being very numerous.

Capt. Scheller visited San Francisco Monday on business connected with the schooner service which he will inaugurate between Schellville and San Francisco, via Schell's slough. The engine and other machinery which was to have been put into the new boat which is being built for him, was consumed in the big fire. This will delay matters somewhat, but the captain expects to have his schooner service in full operation some time in July.

MEETS A TERRIBLE AND LONELY DEATH

S. H. Shaw, Formerly of this Place, Killed in Sierra County by Giant Powder.

S. H. Shaw, for forty years and over a resident of this valley, met a terrible and lonely death at Rattlesnake, Sierra county, the latter part of last month. The exact date of his death is not definitely known as he was alone at the time and he had no near-by neighbors. He was found dead in his cabin by the letter carrier on his periodical rounds, and had evidently been dead several days.

A telegram was received from Sierra county one day last week by his brother, Mr. O. B. Shaw of this place, conveying to him the dreadful tidings. Since then the following particulars of the unfortunate man's death have been received:

Mr. Shaw was undoubtedly killed by an explosion of giant powder.

A short distance from his cabin was a tunnel in which he had been working. About 140 feet inside the tunnel it was discovered where the explosion had taken place, as there were evidences to indicate it. Portions of his clothing and his candle stick were found there. The body was in a terribly mutilated condition. One hand had been entirely blown off and the lower part of the stomach awfully mangled. The conclusion formed by the coroner's jury was that he set off a round of holes and had thought that one of them had gone off and was on his way to reload it when a premature explosion took place.

In the tunnel was found the thumb of the hand which was so badly shattered. It had been cut off with an axe by the deceased, as it was undoubtedly hanging by a shred of skin.

After receiving his injuries Mr. Shaw had made his way to his cabin and had died while attempting to bind up his wounds and stop the flow of blood from his terrible injuries.

Mr. Shaw had been engaged in mining in Sierra county a number of years and at the time of his death was prospecting at Rattlesnake.

Deceased was born in Vermont in 1835, and came to California in the early fifties. He was a veteran of the Civil War, was wounded at Gettysburg and was a member of Lincoln Post, G. A. R., of San Francisco.

During a forty-year residence in Sonoma the deceased won the respect and esteem of his associates. He was a consistent member of the M. E. Church and took great interest in religious affairs.

Mr. Shaw leaves a widow, a son and three daughters. The widow and two daughters, Mrs. Smith and Miss Lena Shaw, reside at Long Beach, Cal. His other daughter, Mrs. J. W. Williams, is a resident of Davisville, Cal. Mr. O. B. Shaw of this place was an only brother.

MRS. M. K. CADY NOT KILLED BY QUAKE.

Had a Miraculous Escape Though, and Lives to Tell Her Experience.

An impression prevails in this community that Mrs. M. K. Cady, widow of the late Supervisor of this district, lost her life in the great disaster in San Francisco on April 18th. She has many friends in Sonoma county who will be pleased to learn that she is still in the land of the living, and is even now visiting friends in this valley.

Her escape from death, however, was miraculous. Occupying a flat adjoining the ill-fated, Valencia Hotel, which went down in a heap of ruins, carrying a score of victims with it, Mrs. Cady was thrown violently from her bed by the force of the shock and before she could realize it the building, which was a three-story affair, was in ruins and she found herself standing in the middle of the room with the four sides of the building gone, but the floor was underneath her feet and the roof over her head. The first story of the building had sunk on a level with the sidewalk, and as Mrs. Cady occupied the upper story she found herself cut off from all retreat from what remained of the tottering building. She shouted for help and as she could readily be seen from the street, a ladder was secured and she was rescued none too soon, as the building shortly after collapsed completely and was immediately destroyed by the flames that had already commenced to lick up the Valencia Hotel.

Mrs. Cady was interviewed by an Index-Tribune reporter and she seemed none the worse for the terrible experience she had passed through. In fact Mrs. Cady never looked better in her life.

MRS. BATCHELOR WANTS LITTLE GIRL

Petitions Superior Court to be Awarded Custody of the Child

Mrs. Susie Batchelor has petitioned the Superior Court of this county to make a temporary order awarding her the custody of Alvina Batchelor, her minor daughter, during the school vacation.

The child is in the custody of her father, L. D. Batchelor of San Francisco, who has sued petitioner for a divorce. The father is alleged to have positively refused to permit the little girl to visit her mother and little brothers, Wayne and Randolph, who reside in this place. The custody of the two boys was awarded the mother by the court several months ago.

The petition recites that the mother and children all desire to be together during the vacation. Judge Burnett has set the matter for hearing on June 18th, and directed that notice be given the father.

Mrs. J. D. Wagoner returned from Santa Cruz Saturday evening, after attending the annual session of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows, as a delegate from Verdant Rebekah Degree Lodge of this place.

Fred D. Spaulding returned to San Francisco Monday morning after spending Sunday with his family on the Church ranch. Mr. D., whose automobile establishment was outside the fire zone and was saved has been doing a big business the past six weeks.

Miss Reinch, accompanied by her nephew, Ernest Cleve, left yesterday morning for her old home in Germany, where she will visit relatives. No definite time has been set for her return. Mr. Cleve, however, will be absent six or eight months. Miss Reinch's many Sonoma friends wish her a pleasant journey and a safe return.

Scrofula

Few are entirely free from it. It may develop so slowly as to cause little if any disturbance during the whole period of childhood. It may then produce dyspepsia, catarrh, and marked tendency to consumption, before causing eruptions, sores or swellings. To get entirely rid of it take the great blood-purifier, Hood's Sarsaparilla. In usual liquid form or in chocolate tablets known as Sarsatabs. 100 doses $1.

Superior Court Business.

The suit of the California Paint Mining and Milling Co. vs. H. C. Brown, was set for trial for August 17th.

In Judge Seawell's department a sale of realty of the estate of Susan Currier, was confirmed.

The contest in the estate of Jane A. Ingalls was reset for June 18th. Eight probate and ten civil matters went over.

SAVED BY COURAGE.

An Exciting Adventure With a Maori Chieftain.

Mr. Becke, the author of "Notes From My South Sea Log," tells of his tutor, who seemed to him the most heroic man in the world because he had been through the first Maori war and because of an adventure which there befell him, and which is given as follows:

Poor Guy—such was the tutor's name—was a lieutenant, and he and two companions were captured by the Maoris. They were taken inside the stockade, and the chief, taking up one of the captured Maori's cutlasses, felt its edge and then fixed his keen eyes on the young officer's face.

"I shall not harm these two men at yours," he said slowly. "They shall go safely back to your lines if." He paused, and a grim smile distorted his tattooed face.

"If what?" asked Guy calmly.

"If you will stretch out your right hand so that I may cut it off at the wrist swiftly, no further harm shall come to you, and you, too, shall go free."

"Will you keep your word?"

"Yes, I, Te Atua Wera, am no liar." Guy nodded, quickly took off his coat and held out his left hand.

"Strike," he said.

The chief again smiled. "Thou art as cunning as thou art brave. I said the right hand."

Guy let fall his left and extended his right arm. Te Atua Wera stepped back a pace, raised the cutlass and struck the point of it into the ground. Then he bent forward and gravely rubbed noses with Guy.

"Go," he said, "but come back no more." So Guy and the two sailors were allowed to return to Despard's lines unharmed.

SHORT LIVED DOCTORS.

Diseases Which Are Most Deadly to the Medical Profession.

The diseases which claim the most victims among physicians relatively to all males are gout and diabetes, and there is a high relative mortality from diseases of the nervous system, circulatory system and kidneys, says the Scientific American.

From the nature of his habits the physician is not subject to accidents, and, though he is brought into contact with infection to a greater extent than other men, his preventive means are successful and his mortality from infection is very low. Freedom from prolonged muscular strains and high blood tension apparently saves him from arteriosclerosis, but suicide claims many and so do the bad habits acquired by the nervously exhausted. It has been said that three-fourths of French morphine users are physicians. The cause of the physician's early death is evidently the excessive nervous expenditure, insufficient rest and defective nutrition, inseparable from his calling, with its broken and restricted sleep, irregular hours of work, rest and meals and worry when lives depend upon his judgment and the lack of a day of complete relaxation in each week. The physician who sees his patients every day in the week, month after month, and cannot learn to forget them when he goes home merely burns the candle at both ends. He violates the law observed by every animal, that there shall be short periods of moderate exertion interrupted by longer periods of rest when repairs are made. It is not too much work as a rule, but scattered work, which prevents rest.

Long Speeches.

Much merriment has been caused by the discovery that in the Egyptian "Book of the Dead" an ancient declared he had "not finished long lectures" on his hearse, but this is curiously matched by a plea for his soul uttered by Hugh Grove (Loyalist) at his execution May 16, 1905 (Vol. 3, Thurloe's Col.lections): "Good people, I was never guilty of much rhetoric, nor ever loved long speeches in my life, therefore you cannot expect either of them at my death. All I desire is your hearty prayers for my soul." etc.

In view of the Egyptian discovery this seems a very close second for England—London Notes and Queries.

Our First Coins.

The first coins really deserving the name of United States coinage were struck off as "pattern pieces" by Benjamin Dudley at the instigation of Robert Morris and were laid before congress in 1783 as specimens of what the coinage should be. They were a "mark" and a "quint" and thus described: The "mark"—obverse, an eye, the center of a glory, 13 points cross equidistant a circle of as many stars. The "quint" is similar in design, the value on reverse being noted.

Cure For Hypochondria.

A young lady of Cardiff who fancied she was ailing went to the surgery of the family doctor and commenced the interview with, "Doctor, I'm dying." "Oh, indeed, I can recommend a very respectable undertaker," blandly responded the doctor. She felt quite well after that—Cardiff Mail.

Our Surroundings. Even the strongest of us are not beyond the reach of our environment. No matter how independent, strong-willed and determined our nature, we are constantly being modified by our surroundings.—Success Magazine.

Everything Returned.

"Are you beginning to get any returns from your literary work?"

"Yes, indeed. I'm not getting anything else."—Kansas City Times.

Oh, what men dare do, what men may do, what men daily do, not knowing what they do!—Shakespeare.

SPEED OF INSECTS.

A Common House Fly Travels a Mile in Thirty-three Seconds.

It is the popular belief that the flight of the birds is much swifter than that of the insects, but a number of naturalists who have been making a study of the matter think that such is not the case.

A common house fly, for example, is not very rapid in its flight, but its wings make 800 beats a second and send it through the air twenty-five feet, under ordinary circumstances, in that space of time. When the insect is alarmed, however, it has been found that it can increase its rate of speed by over 100 feet per second. If it could continue such rapid flight for a mile in a straight line, it would cover that distance in exactly thirty-three seconds.

It is not an uncommon thing when traveling by rail in the summer time to see a bee or wasp keeping up with the train and trying to get in at one of the windows. A swallow is considered one of the swiftest of flying birds, and it was formerly thought that no insect could escape it.

A naturalist, however, told of an exciting chase he saw between a swallow and a dragon fly, which is among the swiftest of insects. The insect flew with incredible speed and wheeled and dodged with such ease that the swallow, despite its utmost efforts, completely failed to overtake it.

A Rank Fraud. Mrs. Nuwed—Here's the bread I started to make today. Isn't it too autumnal? Mr. Nuwed—Why, it isn't baked at all. Mrs. Nuwed—I know it isn't, that's just it. I put plenty of baking powder in it, but it doesn't seem to have worked.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Sore Muscles

Prominent athletes throughout the country find that the best treatment for sore muscles after severe exercise or hard work of any kind, is a hot bath at bed time, which opens the pores. This should immediately be followed with an application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm vigorously rubbed into the skin. This liniment removes all stiffness and soreness and has become a favorite rub-down, as it acts promptly and keeps the muscles in excellent condition. For sale by L. S. Simmons.

A well-known Tomanian man informs the Petaluma Argus that scarcely a fish has been caught in Tomanes Bay since the big earthquake. Before that time excellent fishing was enjoyed and a big variety of fish was caught. He says the water on the bay is considerably deeper than before the quake.

AN-IENT ROME

Is now merely a memory of the past. Ballard's Snow Liniment is the family liniment of the twentieth century. A positive cure for Rheumatism, Burns, Cuts, Sprains, Neuralgia, etc. Mr. C. H. Runyon, St. Mary, Mo., writes: "I have used Chamberlain's Liniment for Rheumatism and all pain. I can't say enough in its praise." Sold by Simmons' Drug Store.

The weather continues in the condition of a delinquent subscriber's account—unsettled.

THERE ARE FEW

People who know how to take care of themselves—the majority do not. The liver is a most important organ in the body. Herbine will keep it in condition. V. C. Simkins, Albu, Texas, writes: "I have used Herbine for Chills and Fever and find it the best medicine I ever used. I would not be without it. It is good for children as it is for grown-ups, and I recommend it. It is fine for La Grippe. Sold by Simmons' Drug Store."

The Art of Flattery.

There are those who have an instinct which prompts them to offer verbal caresses to all with whom they come in contact, and there is no doubt that, if such people are gifted at the same time with good hearts, they greatly sweeten life. They do not know how to say, much less write, a disagreeable sentence. They see with their mind's eye the exact spot where a flattering word would produce pleasure or save a smart, and the temptation to say it is very great. The pleasure they produce delights them, and they study to produce it again. No doubt they practice an art, but not a very black art, and it is difficult not to like them, especially if they are women. Real flattery—the really false article—can hardly exist with a warm heart. Plenty of folly and too much desire to be popular may go with that, but nothing else.—Family Herald.

DON'T !!!

Look out for that "rainy day" It comes sooner or later for so many—we can't tell to-day who may want on the morrow.

Prepare now while you are able for any misfortune that may overtake you. Don't run any risks.

Here is something that will help you provide for the rainy day—an investment that carries with it unusual benefits and profits so valuable from the minute you buy the stock.

Smith's Cash Store is well and favorably known all over the West. Its reputation is of the best and in volume of business it is making tremendous strides forward every year. Some five years ago the stock was selling for $5.00 a share. To-day the price is $10.00 a share. These figures demonstrate what a thriving institution is this biggest Mail Order House on the Pacific Coast.

Each share of stock is guaranteed to earn 6 per cent a year. But the greatest benefit is derived by the stockholder from the discounts given to the holders of five or more shares of stock. You can buy anything to eat, use or wear at the same price the goods would cost your local dealers. We call them "Owner's Prices."

Suppose you buy goods that altogether cost $20 at our wholesale rate. If you are a stockholder you get a discount amounting to $2.50, and your bill is only $17.50. The saving you will make in one year in addition to the earnings will in all probability more than cover the investment.

Year after year you will be effecting big savings. But should hard times knock at your door—and you must not be too sure that something of that sort will not happen—think what it will mean to you to be able to buy everything at cost prices. It might be the very thing that would help you to survive the period of distress.

We are increasing the amount of our capital stock. We are telling you about the stock because we think you ought to invest for your own sake. You couldn't buy stock in any other concern that would pay you so well.

It will not be long before the price of the stock is advanced. You know that means there are not many days remaining in which you can take advantage of this great offer.

For your convenience we are printing a coupon which you ought to fill out—it does not obligate you in any way. Send it at once.
